POP-UP flights

Helvetic Airways: Florence lined up for late October

Launched by the Swiss regional airline last July, the ‘POP-UP’ flights concept offers flights to a constantly changing range of destinations for a limited period, with seats available for last-minute booking. Florence will take its turn as a Helvetic Airways POP-UP destination in late October 2020.

First Brač, Dubrovnik and Zakynthos stepped up to the plate. Now it's the Tuscan capital's time to shine, as Florence becomes a POP-UP flight destination. The birthplace of the Italian Renaissance has something for everyone – whether it's the historic center, the iconic works of art or a round of golf in nearby Castelfalfi.

Flight plan:

Flight 2L8362	23/10/2020	ZRH	09:00	FLR	10:10
Flight 2L8363	25/10/2020	FLR	18:00	ZRH	19:15

Flight and hotel packages are available from CHF 625 (city break only) and CHF 845 (includes golf trip). They are available to book now on helvetic.com/popup-flights or on our travel partner site infinetigolf.ch. All destinations are served by the flagship of the Helvetic Airways fleet, the ultra-quiet and eco-friendly new generation Embraer E190-E2.

With its POP-UP flights, Helvetic Airways offers Swiss and international clients a unique selection of top destinations, in compliance with proven hygiene conditions and with seats available for last-minute booking. The Swiss regional airline also guarantees maximum flexibility in the event that restrictions affect travel.
